

Lord

Teach Us To

Pray

The greatest attribute of a trusting disciple is gratitude.
Brennan Manning

In Your Prayer Group

Begin by thanking God for the many blessings He has given us – simple things like clothes, food, shelter, running water, etc.

Using Psalm 107, identify with each character and thank Him for answered prayers.

Let this season of thanksgiving lead to bold prayers of deliverance for your co-workers, family, friends, leaders, neighbors, pastors enemies, and yourself.

Psalm 107:1-2, 6, 8

1. Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his love endures forever. 2. Let the redeemed of the Lord say this – those he redeemed from the hand of the foe, those he gathered from the lands, from east and west, from north and south. 6. Then they cried out to the Lord in their trouble and he delivered them from their distress. 8. Let them give thanks to the Lord for his unfailing love and his wonderful deeds for men.

Lord

Teach Us To

Pray

In Private & Daily Prayer This Week

Each day this week, use Psalm 107 and the following questions about God to help you give thanks and lead you to bold prayers for the specific people group listed that day.

Questions about God:

1. Who am I?
2. What have I done?
3. What am I able to do?
4. What will I do?
5. What am I doing?

Reflect on these questions each day as it relates to the following categories:

Wednesday – Family

Thursday – Church

Friday – Co-workers

Saturday – Friends/Neighbors

Sunday – Nation/World Leaders

Monday – World Missions/Evangelism